

Hanyang University is eager to invite excellent students from your country through the 2013 Korean Government Scholarship Program (KGSP).

After Hanyang University firstly screens all the applicants, Hanyang university will recommend 20 students to the Korean government and the final selection will be done by the government.

Students can apply for this program by submitting their application documents to the following address by March 27, 2013

Листу департмана можете погледати овде.

Водич за конкурс можете преузети овде.