

Warsaw School of Economics (SGH) is ranked as the best University in Poland and is a member of the Community of European Management Schools and International Companies (CEMS). The SUW program is organized by SGH and the Student's Union. The program is conducted entirely in English and encourages participation of international students. The program will take place July 1-12, 2013. The 2013 program topic is broadly defined as "How to be a competitive firm in Poland and Central Europe a recipe for success". While participating in the program students will attend lectures taught by prominent professors of the University. More information about the program you may refer to the programs official website:
