

The Faculty of Economics, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia invites international faculty to submit course proposal(s) on Bachelor or Master level with an International or South-East European focus in the field of Economics or Business Studies. Ljubljana Summer School /Take the Best from East and West/

It is an internationally renowned programme that was created in the summer of 2000. In 2013, 477 students from all over the world studied 24 Bachelor and Master Courses taught by FELU and international faculty. The programme imparts knowledge with social activities by taking full advantage of Slovenia's unique geographical position: the meeting point of East and West.

Information

Please apply online before 15 November 2013