

Catholic Academic Exchange Service (KAAD), a scholarship foundation of the German Bishops' Conference inform candidate about the post-graduate scholarship of the East Europe Programme which is partly financed by Renovabis.

Deadline for submitting scholarship applications at East Europe Programme of KAAD is the June 30th 2014.

The applicants have to prove the German language skills at least at level B1 and should be able to complete all needed documents and references amongst others reference letters from academic staff of home university or research institution. All candidates are obliged by the scholarship contract to return to home country after study completion.

Finde more information here.